

Welcome to the American National Election Studies. You have been scientifically selected to be part of this special way of finding out what Americans think about life in the United States today. This research study is sponsored by Stanford University and the University of Michigan. Your participation is voluntary and you may decline to answer any questions you do not want to answer. The survey usually takes about 70 minutes. Your answers will be combined with other participants' answers to make a data file that will be shared with other researchers and used for future research. Your individual privacy will be maintained in all published and written data from the study.

If you are not satisfied with how this study is being conducted, or if you have any concerns, complaints, or general questions about the research or your rights as a participant, please contact the Stanford Institutional Review Board (IRB) to speak to someone independent of the research team at 650-723-2480 or email IRB2-Manager@lists.stanford.edu.
